"The hard work and dedication of the Friends allows the library to offer the variety and depth of programming for all ages and services, like the Museum Pass program, that the library is known for. We really couldn't offer what we do at the library without the Friends' support. The library and community are so lucky to have such a wonderful group of people working and advocating for the library today and in the future."

Lisa Masten, Library Director

"The Friends raise money that enables our library to move from good to great – providing resources for additional programming, much needed equipment, support for children, teen and adult programming along with special events throughout the year. We all rely on the Friends' hard work and cheerful dedication to Lucy and our community. Thank you Friends, you make a difference in all our lives."

Dianne Stamm, President of the LRW Board of Trustees

... OF THE LIBRARY

THE FRIENDS of the Lucy Robbins Welles Library is a not-for-profit organization established in 1961 to support the library both financially and through volunteers.

Members' contributions help to fund the majority of library activities for all ages including:

- Summer and Winter Reading programs
- Museum and Attraction Passes
- Parent/Child Workshops
- Teen programs
- DVDs, CDs, Audio Books
- Reference online databases
- Emerging technologies
- Other equipment that the library needs as well as sponsoring programs that could not otherwise be funded.

Membership in the Friends of the Lucy Robbins Welles Library is open to all.

If you or your family use the many services available at the Lucy Robbins Welles Library or their online services, consider becoming a FRIEND!
