(2)

VI. OLD BUSINESS

Remove the Pay-Per-Call and Stipend Checks from the agenda. Deputy Chief Papa reported there will be new company for the Cad System. Tiburon will be implemented. Wethersfield, Rocky Hill and East Hartford are currently using the new system. Manchester is ready to go and hopefully we won't be far behind.

VII. NEW BUSINESS

Follow-up on listing the dates of the BFC meetings on the Town web-site.

A suggestion was made to again move the BFC meetings to the different firehouses so there can be more participation by the members.

Many positive comments were made by those in attendance about the excellent job done by Co.#4 at the Buena Vista fire.

Chief Schroeder commented on the fact this was the first incident where a pellet stove/residue was involved. He reported there were no injuries and he thanked both Wethersfield and Berlin for their mutual aid. New Britain also sent a piece of apparatus.

VIII. PUBLIC PARTICIPATION

Fmr. Commissioner John Gubbins thanked Co.#1 for always remembering he and Mrs. Gubbins during Santa's Run.

Commissioner Bogacz reported that the Carlson family was very grateful for the Department's show of respect during the wake and funeral for Ron.

The two Town Council liaison's will be David Nagel and Maureen Klett.

IX. COMMISSIONER'S REMARKS

No other business to come before the Commission the meeting was adjourned.

X. ADJOURNMENT

The meeting was adjourned at 8:00pm.
