- Coordinator Hendrickson attended the Town Youth Justice Institute Conference; this conference highlighted building engaging programming for youth through community. The resounding takeaway from this conference was having a trusted adult to go to and creating spaces where students can be themselves has a positive impact on youth's future.
- Clinical Coordinator Hendrickson also led Summer Youth Adventure staff and mentors in QPR Community Helper training and Mandated Reporter training. Trainees are now certified through June 19, 2028 in QPR. Staff and mentors used real examples of situations that they have encountered to enhance the discussion held during training. Clinical consultation will continue to be provided.
- Case examples include mentoring youth who was referred due to toxic friendship & has engaged successfully with mentoring weekly, adult client referred by financial caseworker Tarantello worked with coordinator Hendrickson to secure longer term mental health treatment from a private provider, contract therapist has been working with youth around self-esteem- has increased both self-esteem and self-regulating behaviors. Will continue to work toward successful discharge.
- Volunteer Recognition Dinner was held successfully with 90 attendees. Representatives from Town Council, Youth Adult Council, Human Rights Commission, Youth mentors & leadership coalition as well as department volunteers supporting, food bank, holiday programs & clerical projects ie. large mailings all attended. We received very positive feedback regarding this event that was planned and coordinated by social worker & volunteer coordinator Smith.
- Park & Rec Subsidies are being determined to provide households with discount on programs, pool pass, or payment plan.
- Redeterminations & new applications are being scheduled & completed by staff: LaBrecque, Wassik, Tarantello & Smith.
- Financial Casework Example: Coordinator Wassik worked with 2 disabled females and their supportive family members. Concerns regarding the effectiveness of the Conservator resulted in referral to Probate for case review. This was attended by the 2 clients, their extended family, conservator in question & coordinator Wassik & was led by Judge Randich. There was a lengthy case discussion surrounding the use (mis-use) of Uber charges, lack of monthly review of financial expenditures, need to pursue the re-instatement of SSI for one of the disabled females as she paid off the overage in August 2024, need to change utility bills to their names as the bills were in the deceased parent's name along with the need to apply for available programs such as SNAP, housing and Energy asst. Judge Randich questioned why these programs were not pursued. Conservator was unable to account for the failure to pursue all of these issues. Coordinator Wassik advocated for the 2 clients-giving accurate case info & details of how to apply for above noted available resources. End of year Financial Accounting was scheduled. Receipts for all the Uber charges will be reviewed and reimbursement required as necessary. Per Judge Randich - the current Conservator is expected to bring one of the clients to SSA to move forward with the reinstatement of her SSI. Coordinator Wassik confirmed that they are still on wait list for Newington Housing Authority with 1 to 2 year anticipated wait.

She will be the point person for the library during this process. The migration to a new integrated library system for the entire consortium will begin in June 2026. The self-checkout station located on the 2nd floor near the children's room has not been working properly for several weeks. The library will be replacing all three self-checkout stations in the late summer with CIP funds that were just approved.
- In personnel news, Joanna Cistulli began in the Children's Department in June. Interviews for her former part-time position in Circulation were held in June. A decision will be made at the beginning of July. Long time Circulation Substitute, Linda Dalidowitz, worked her last day on Thursday, June 26th. Her position will be filled at a later date. Assistant Library Director Karen Benner and Digital Services Librarian Michelle Patnode continued with 4 more mini technology training sessions that included leaning the setup for the Owl Conferencing System and showing staff how to unjam and change the printer cartridges on the staff printers.
- In facilities news, the A/C unit for the 2nd floor started acting up during the June heat wave. Facilities was quick to help resolve the problem. The cleaning service continues to do a wonderful job. Parking was very problematic during the month. Any events at Mill Pond or Town Hall that require a lot of parking immediately impact parking for library patrons. On the day of the adult summer reading kickoff, there was no parking for library patrons from 10:00 am- 12 noon. The parking was so bad that people going to the event at the Community Center created their own parking spots in the library lot blocking exits for others.

In June, the Patrol Division report:

25-000010893

On Sunday, June 1, 2025 an officer was conducting proactive patrol in the parking lot of 2089 Berlin Turnpike (Siesta Motel). The officer observed an occupied black, 2024 black Ford Edge with dark window and dark windshield tint bearing Connecticut license plate BT89246 idling in the parking lot of the Siesta Motel. The officer observed that a white female passenger, who he identified as Stephanie Fonda, exit the passenger side of the vehicle and was briskly walking towards motel room 143. The officer immediately recognized this vehicle as a suspect vehicle in numerous larcenies across the State of Connecticut. Furthermore, this vehicle has engaged multiple agencies in a pursuit, to include Clinton Police Department on May 29th, 2025. The officer observed the vehicle immediately exit the parking lot of 2089 Berlin Turnpike and begin to head southbound on the Berlin Turnpike. The officer attempted a traffic stop as the vehicle made a U-turn in the median break to head back northbound on the Berlin Turnpike. The officer successfully deployed a StarChase GPS dart onto the vehicle due to the criminal history of the vehicle fleeing from traffic stops and being a suspect vehicle in numerous larcenies. After the officer activated his emergency lights and sirens, the suspect vehicle began accelerating at a high rate of speed northbound on the Berlin Turnpike towards the Wethersfield town line. After it became obvious that the vehicle was now engaging the officer in a pursuit and fleeing from a lawful traffic stop attempt, the officer deactivated his emergency lights and sirens and pulled over on the side of the road. The StarChase system showed global positioning in real-time, it was observed that the vehicle continued driving northbound on the Berlin Turnpike, at some points reaching speeds of 95 miles per hour. The vehicle became stationary in a driveway of 298 Park Terrace in Hartford, CT. Officers responded to the area and observed the vehicle in a parking space occupied by David Fonda in the driver's seat. Officers conducted a high risk stop and took Fonda into custody. Fonda made spontaneous utterances that the Newington Police Department had no jurisdiction in Hartford, Connecticut, and that he was illegally detained as fleeing from the police and engaging in a pursuit are traffic tickets only and that he should be only given a ticket. Fonda confirmed that he knew officers were lawfully attempting pull him over in Newington. David began kicking the door and window of the rear compartment of the marked patrol vehicle. Officers observed in plain view inside of the vehicle, a large white rock-like substance in the center console cup holder suspected to be crack cocaine. Furthermore, a glass pipe with Brillo and a white, cloudy residue was observed in plain view accompanying this white rock substance, as well as burnt Brillo pieces and a metal push rod with white residue. In the trunk which could be observe from the back window due to the vehicle being an SUV, numerous bags of suspected stolen merchandise were observed. The vast majority of these items still had the anti-theft security tags affixed to them. In total, approximately $4,302.72 worth of suspected stolen merchandise with sales tags and anti-theft security tags attached were located inside the vehicle. David Fonda (DOB: 11/09/1983) was arrested and charged with violation of C.G.S. 21a-279(a)(3) Possession of a Controlled Substance 3rd Offense, 21a-267(a) Use of Drug Paraphernalia, 29-38 Illegal Weapon in a Motor Vehicle, 53a-127f Illegal Possession of Shoplifting Device, 14-223(b) Engaging in a Pursuit and 14-222 Reckless Driving. David was transported to the Newington Police Department for booking procedures and later released on a $15,000.00 bond.

On 06/02/2025 at approximately 0300 hours a patrol officer observed a Honda Accord traveling north bound on the Berlin Turnpike near Deming Street. A DMV query of the vehicle's registration plate, revealed that the registration was expired as of and the insurance information was listed as unconfirmed. A traffic stop was conducted and the operator Javier Ruiz, driving privileges were later found to be suspended and a search of his criminal history found past arrests for operating a motor vehicle while suspended. Based on the officers' observations and DMV queries, it was determined that the vehicle would be towed from the scene due to being unregistered and uninsured, as well as Ruiz's license status. Ruiz was asked to step from the vehicle to advise him that the vehicle would be towed, for the aforementioned reasons. As Ruiz stepped from the vehicle, a glass pipe fell from his lap onto the ground. As the passenger of the vehicle, Brandy Beisel was removed from the vehicle officers observed her to have a glass pipe in the front of her pant waistline. Beisel was searched and a second pipe was recovered as well as a plastic baggie, which contained a large white rock-like substance, consistent with crack cocaine. The piece was found to weigh 1.9g. The search of the vehicle found, in the center console two small pieces of crack cocaine. The two small pieces of white rocklike substance were found to weigh 0.2g. Beisel's purse was searched and contained a large amount of narcotics, drug paraphernalia, and one hundred and one (101) wax paper baggies that contained a powder substance. A Mobile Detect Multi-Drug Test chemical reagent kit was utilized. The test kit showed a positive result for the presumptive presence of Meth/Amphetamines. I also seized a small amount of dark-colored, granular powder, believed to be PCP. Beisel's purse also contained one rectangular pill, which was found to be a Xanax, five blue pills, which were also found to be Alprazolam, and nine white pills, which were not a controlled substance. Ruiz was processed and charged with the violations of CGS 14-215: Operation of a Motor Vehicle while Suspended, 14-12(a): Operation of an Unregistered Motor Vehicle, 21a-267(a): Possession of Drug Paraphernalia and 21a-279(a)(1): Possession of a Controlled Substance. Ruiz was issued a court date of 06/16/2025 at the GA-15 in New Britain, CT. Ruiz was released on a $5,000.00 bond. Beisel was processed and charged with the violations of CGS four counts (for the possession of crack cocaine, Meth/Amphetamines, PCP and medications that were controlled substances) of 21a-279(a)(2): Possession of a Controlled Substance, 21a-267(a): Possession of Drug Paraphernalia, 21a-257(a): Failure to Keep Narcotics/Prescriptions in the Original Container and two counts (for the 1.9g of crack cocaine and the 101 wax paper baggies containing Meth/Amphetamines) of 21a-277(a)(1): Possession of Narcotics with the Intent to Sell. She was held on a $50,000.00 bond.

On 6/4/2025 at approximately 0236 hours, officers responded to the area of IHOP, located at 3280 Berlin Turnpike, for the report of a male who located his vehicle that he had reported stolen to the New Britain Police Department earlier in the night. Newington PD Dispatch further reported the vehicle to be a black 2004 Ford Crown Victoria sedan with the offenders still occupying the vehicle. Newington PD Dispatch advised officers that the complainant was standing by in the nearby LOWES parking lot. Prior to officer's arrival NPD dispatch confirmed the vehicle was listed as a File 01 with New Britain Police Department. Arriving officers positioned a marked police cruiser directly in front of the vehicle to keep the vehicle from fleeing. A male occupant in the driver's seat was detained and identified as Neftali Irizarry. Irizarry was subsequently placed under arrest. Neftali was charged with violating Connecticut General Statutes 53a-119c Larceny of a Motor Vehicle 1st Offense, 53a-119b(a) Use of a Motor Vehicle Without Permission, and 53a-125a Larceny in the Fifth Degree. Neftali was held on a $20,000 bond.

On 6/11/2025 at approximately 0226 hours, officers entered the parking lot area of the Carrier Motor Lodge, located at 2660 Berlin Turnpike in Newington, CT which is known for extensive criminal activity from drug/human trafficking to stolen vehicles. While in the lot, officers observed a black Ford F-150 pickup truck, backed into a space with no front plate displayed. The vehicle was occupied with a female in the driver's seat. Officer suspected the vehicle could have been stolen. A hotel staff member confirmed officers' suspicions and asked if we were there for the black pickup truck. The staff member elaborated and said she thought the vehicle was "off" and did observe the vehicle travel the wrong way, southbound in northbound lanes, on Berlin Turnpike. Officers made contact with female in the driver's seat and identified her as Bianca Carrion. Carrion was cooperative and admitted she was sitting in the vehicle to smoke marijuana. A backup officer located at the passenger side door advised he saw we he believed to be a firearm in the seat directly next to Carrion, inside of a black small backpack that was unzipped. Carrion was secured and explained that the "pistol" was her husband's (Ivan) and that it was legally registered to him. Carrion said she had it with her for protection because of the area she was in. Carrion admitted she just had the firearm with her in the parking lot for her safety. Carrion clarified she intentionally had the weapon in the vehicle and advised the firearm was loaded with 8 bullets. Carrion was arrested and charged in violation of C.G.S. 29-38 Weapons in a Motor Vehicle and 29-35(a)(1) Carrying Pistol without Permit and was released on a $10,000 bond.
