PRESS RELEASE

On April 16, 2018 the Newington Police Department conducted an undercover operation on the Berlin Turnpike that resulted in the arrest of three individuals for prostitution.

33 year old Tamar Creel of Stafford, CT was arrested and charged with prostitution and drug charges after offering to engage in sexual conduct in exchange for a fee. In a second incident during the same operation, detectives arrested 38 year old Nicole Laflamme of Simsbury for prostitution. Detectives also arrested a third female in another incident during the same operation, identified as Valerie Marco of Middletown for prostitution. All three females were released on bond and are expected to appear in New Britain Superior Court on 4/30/18.
