Blended

by Sharon M. Draper

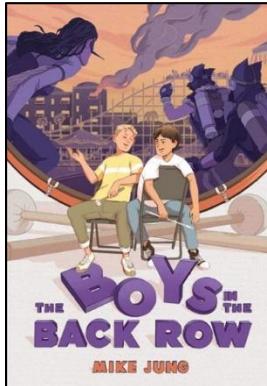

Middle Grade Novel (2018)
J Jung

"You're so exotic!" "You look so unusual." "But what are you really?" Eleven-year-old Isabella is used to these kinds of comments – her father is black, her mother is white – but that doesn't mean she likes them. And now that her parents are divorced (and getting along WORSE than ever), Isabella feels more like a push-me-pull-me toy. Being split between Mom and Dad is more than switching houses, nicknames, and backpacks: it's also about switching identities. If you're only seen as half of this and half of that, how can you ever feel whole?

Genesis Begins Again

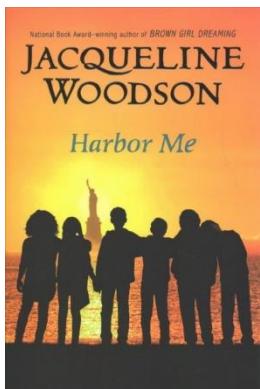

by Alicia D. Williams

Middle Grade Novel (2019)
J-MS Lockington

There are ninety-six things Genesis hates about herself. She knows the exact number because she keeps a list. Like #95: Because her skin is so dark, people call her charcoal and eggplant; even her own family. And #61: Because her family is always being put out of their house, belongings laid out on the sidewalk for the world to see. When Genesis reaches #100 on the list of things she hates about herself, will she continue on, or can she find the strength to begin again?
