PRESS RELEASE

On 10/28/2021 Newington Police Department Detectives arrested Jason Jamaal Haynes at Hartford Superior Court after his appearance on an unrelated court case. Newington Detectives had previously obtained an arrest warrant for Haynes which alleges that on 10/10/2021 Haynes entered the home of an ex-girlfriend and struck the ex-girlfriend as well as a male companion in the head with a firearm. Haynes is then alleged to have shot the male companion who sustained a life altering injury. Haynes is a convicted felon prohibited from possessing a firearm and there was an active restraining order in place at time of the incident. 3 juvenile children were present in the home at the time of the incident and were not physically harmed. Haynes was held on a court set bond of $975,000.00 and will be presented in New Britain Superior Court on 10/29/2021. Haynes was charged with the following:

- Assault in the First Degree
- Assault in the Second Degree with a Firearm
- Criminal Possession of a Firearm
- Home Invasion
- Violating a Restraining Order
- 3 Counts of Risk of Injury to a Minor
- Unlawful Discharge of a Firearm
