

Books To Read With Your Baby

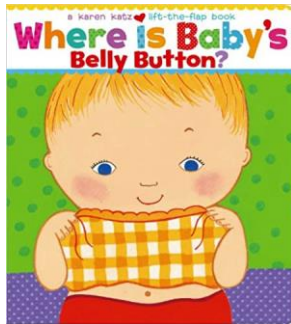

Peek-a-Who? By Nina Laden

Colorful pictures and simple rhyming texts help children guess what's peeking through the die cut windows in this board book. The anticipation of what's hiding on the next page and the bright, engaging illustrations will keep youngsters guessing and giggling all the way to the surprise endings.

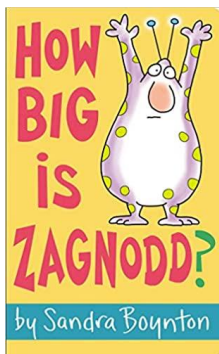

Look Look! By Peter Linenthal

This board book is full of high-contrast black-and-white cut-paper art that is perfect for staring at, and is just the thing for the eyes of the youngest babies. Children run, fish swim, stars shine... all for baby's eyes to see. A few words in curving red type on each spread describe the scenes -- a car races, a cat stretches, flowers bloom -- and extend the book's age appeal so that it will be fascinating to older babies, too.

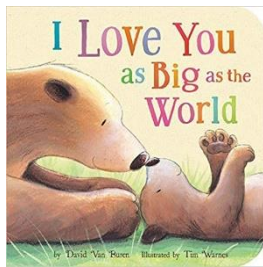

Where is Baby's Belly Button? by Karen Katz

Have fun introducing body parts to your little one. The adorable babies play peekaboo in this delightful interactive book with easy to lift flaps that will delight your baby into their toddler years.

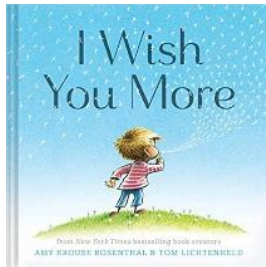

How Big Is Zagnodd? By Sandra Boynton

Finally, a board book that dares to answer the question: "HOW BIG IS ZAGNODD?" (Spoiler alert: SO big.) From there, we zip around outer space to meet a wild variety of aliens - Boknuk, Fleeb, Igwak, to name a few - who are LONG or FUZZY or BRIGHT or DANCEY or SLEEPY. And then, for reasons that aren't entirely clear, there's Steve. This book will have Earthlings big and small giggling with delight.
