

YETI...SET...READ!

February 2 - March 6, 4:30 P.M.

Place an "X" on each challenge completed. Once 12 or more challenges are done bring this sheet into the Lucy Robbins Welles Library Children's Department to spin the wheel. The Finale Read-A-thon Event will be Friday, March 6, 5:30 - 8:00 p.m. Registration will begin on February 20.

(No wheel spin at the finale.)

Lucy Robbins Welles LIBRARY Attend an age appropriate library program.	Library's Website. Read or listen to a story or article on a database located on the LRWL website.	 Read a total of 100 minutes. Does not have to be done in 1 sitting.	Listen to an audiobook: on CD, on Hoopla, on Overdrive, on BookFLIX, or a VOX book.
Play a math game. 	 Tell someone about your favorite part of winter.	Lucy Robbins Welles LIBRARY Attend an age appropriate library program.	Choose a book from the Librarian Picks shelf.
 Come in and do the Scavenger Hunt or I Spy tank.	 Read a total of 100 minutes. Does not have to be done in 1 sitting.	POETRY Read poems from a book in the LRW Library's Poetry collection.	 Practice your math facts.
 Tell a librarian a fact about Snowflakes.	Choose a recipe from a LRW Library cookbook. Go home and make the chosen recipe. 	 Read a total of 100 minutes. Does not have to be done in 1 sitting.	 Do an outdoor winter activity.

Congratulations!
You have completed the winter Reading Challenge.

Lucy Robbins Welles LIBRARY

100 Garfield Street, Newington, Connecticut 06111

Voice: 860-665-8700

www.newingtonct.gov/library